Winner, Leader, Mentor, Teacher, Parent, Coach

Lisa Bluder, the all-time winningest coach in program history, is in her 17th year as head women's basketball coach at the University of Iowa and her 33rd year overall. Under her direction, the Hawkeyes have advanced to 15 postseason appearances (12 NCAA and three WNIT) in 16 seasons, including postseason berths in each of the last nine seasons (eight NCAA and one WNIT). Bluder, one-of-14 Division I coaches with 675 or more wins, is a three-time Big Ten Coach of the Year (2001, 2008 and 2010) and two-time WBCA Regional Coach of the Year (2001 and 2008). She has guided Iowa to a winning record in 15 of her 16 years at Iowa, including 11 upper-division finishes in the challenging Big Ten Conference. Bluder, who ranks third among Big Ten coaches all-time in league victories (160), has led Iowa to nine 20-win seasons in her 16 years, including seven of the last nine years. Bluder has coached numerous players to different awards in her 16 years in Iowa City. She has mentored 19 players to 47 All-Big Ten honors, including 12 first team picks, 16 second, 11 third and eight honorable mention selections. She has also had two Big Ten Freshman of the Year award winners, two Big Ten Sixth Player of the Year recipients, eight members of the Big Ten All-Freshman team and three players named to the Big Ten All-Defensive team, with Kachine Alexander earning the honor twice. Five players during Bluder's tenure have earned a total of seven Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) all-region team accolades and six players have earned a total of 11 honorable mention All-America honors. Bluder coached her first consensus All-American in Samantha Logic, who earned the honor after being named a WBCA Division I Coaches All-American, USBWA All-American, ESPN Second Team All-American, and Third Team Associated Press All-American. Logic – the only player in NCAA history to accumulate at least 1,500 career points, 800 rebounds, 800 assists, and 200 steals – was one of 12 players in the country to be invited to attend the 2015 WNBA Draft. With Bluder on the Iowa sidelines, student-athletes have been named Academic All-Big Ten 81 times, including a program-best eight honorees in 2011 and 2012. The 81 honorees equal the third-highest total in the Big Ten during the last 16 years. Ally Disterhoft became the program's second two-time Academic All-American, as she was named to the third team as a sophomore in 2015 and the first team as a junior in 2016. She also garnered the top academic honor of Academic All-American of the Year in 2016. Lindsey Meder was the first two-time Academic All-American (2001 and 2002). Samantha Logic also earned Academic All-American distinction in 2015. Iowa was the only Division I women's basketball team to have two student-athletes honors, as Disterhoft was the lone sophomore included on the list.
